

Request for W S 499 Senior Thesis
(revised May 2016)

Description: The Women's Studies Senior Thesis option is available to students who seek to conduct independent research written under the supervision of a member of the Women's Studies faculty. Students seeking to enroll in W S 499 (3 crs) must have senior classification as well as an idea for a project or topic. Students requesting W S 499 should have met previously with a faculty member who agrees to supervise the senior thesis work. The student and faculty member should agree to the learning terms of the thesis project (topic, readings, assignments, meetings, etc.) before completing this form.

Add slips will not be given out prior to completion of the W S 499 request form.
